PRESS RELEASE

Victims Support Section organizes a Training of Trainers for Focal Persons from 21 Provinces, for further training to the Civil Parties in Case 002

The Victims Support Section (VSS) of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC) is organising a Training of Trainers program for 120 Focal Persons, from 21 different provinces of Cambodia on 26 November 2010 at Hotel Imperial Garden Phnom Penh Hotel from 8:00 am.

The training aims to enable the selected Focal Persons to be able in an efficient manner to receive and transfer correct and updated information from the VSS to their fellow Civil Parties in Case 002.

The training program offers the Focal Persons an opportunity to meet with officials from various offices of the ECCC and officials from the civil society. Through this training, the Focal Persons will increase their knowledge about the ongoing proceedings and the legal issues related the rights and obligations of Civil Parties in Case 002. The aim of the training is to ensure that the Focal Persons will be capable of organizing further trainings among other Civil Parties within their respectively communities/provinces throughout the country.

This is the second group of Focal Points that are being trained. VSS organized the first round of Training for Trainers for Focal Persons on 05 November 2010.
