Case 003 Crime Sites

The International Co-Investigating Judge announced in February 2013 that Case 003 remains open and the investigation of the alleged crimes is proceeding. He also provided details of the scope of investigation.

In Case 003, members of the Revolutionary Army of Kampuchea (RAK) and the Navy and Air Force of Democratic Kampuchea (DK) have allegedly committed crimes against humanity, grave breaches of the Geneva Conventions, and national crimes of murder and torture during the Khmer Rouge regime from April 1975 to January 1979.

In particular, it is alleged in the International Co-Prosecutor's Second Introductory Submission that:

- The Revolutionary Army of Kampuchea (RAK), Democratic Kampuchea (DK) Navy and DK Air Force purged divisions of the military;
- The purged individuals were arbitrarily arrested, unlawfully detained, tortured, murdered and subjected to forced labour;
- Victims of the alleged crimes included workers, fishermen, people identified as "traitors" to the Khmer Rouge and foreign nationals (Western, Thai and Vietnamese) captured in waters claimed by the DK government or kidnapped from border areas; and
- The alleged crimes were committed by the DK Navy and DK Army cadres during incursions into Vietnam in late 1977 and 1978.

These alleged crimes were committed not only off the coast of Cambodia but also in the following nine locations.

Disagreements over Case 003

The National Co-Investigating Judge announced in February 2013 that he sent a Forwarding Order to the Co-Prosecutors for final submissions, indicating that his investigation is complete. The International Co-Prosecutor, under a disagreement with the National Co-Prosecutor, filed his response to the Co-Investigating Judges.

Case 004 Crime Sites/Episodes

A total of 44 crime sites and two criminal episodes are under investigation in Case 004. Those highlighted in yellow are additional crime sites that the International Co-Investigating Judge made public in December 2012. The rest were announced in August 2011 by both Judges.
