Letter of request for opinion*Addressed to the respected and beloved District Angkar (Organization)

Concerning the registration in the list of the Kampuchea Krom people, I would like to report as follows:

- 1- There are husbands living in our Cambodian country who got married to wives from Youn country (Vietnam); but some others are Yuon (Vietnamese) husbands who got married to our Cambodian wives. Now after we registered them in the list, they always come and request (for authorization) to go to Yuon (Vietnam). If the Angkar (Organization) allowed them, then they would go.

If all of them were Yuon (Vietnamese), we would send them to the Angkar (Organization) [Incomprehensible]. If it was like this, what would the Angkar decide then?

Please inform us

It is confirmed additionally that for those who have their ranks as First-Lieutenant or Second Lieutenant, I am going to contact with Comrade Yorn, District military, in order to take them out this evening right away. So, I beg to the Angkar (Organization) to please be informed of this above.
