

Tes Seuan, 54, male, Khmer, interviewed at Voat Krauch, Krauch village, Krauch subdistrict, Prey Chhor district and in a car, Kampong Cham province, 11 November 2006 by Steve Heder with Heng Ham Kheng

[At the pagoda]

My wife is from here. She was a medic at the Security Office. She is Būn Nay Yeuan, a native of here.

I am from Bos Khnaor in Chamkar Loe.

The location of the Office no longer exists.

I'm now a worker-peasant, and so is my wife.

[In the car]

In the Pol Pot period, I was a military with Preap in the North Zone 304 troops.

The Sector 41 Security Office was at Krasang Tiep, which was guarded by security troops to prevent the people from entering and finding out what was going on in this secret location.

[Points to Security centre visible across canal as a small wooded area.]

The execution ground was a bit further on. In fact, the Security Office is in Kor subdistrict, near the US-built Kor primary school.

In 1975-76, I was stationed in Kampong Chamville. I was removed in 1976 and sent back to Bos Khnaor as a mobile youth. Then on 21 December 1977 I was married off. She was my first wife. My current wife I married later.

I heard about the Sector Security Office from my wife, who was chairman of the medics at the Security Office, by which I mean she was the chairman of the medics who treated persons at the Security Office. However, she was attached to the Krauch subdistrict medical corps. She also worked at the subdistrict hospital.
