Questions and answers:

CC & MS: What and where did you do before 1975?

TS: I was a soldier. I served as chief of the regiment with 500 soldiers in Stoeung Trang (ស្ទឹងត្រង់) district, Dei Krahâm (ដីក្រហម) (Sre Veal) (ស្រែវាល) Chamka Leu (ចម្ការលើ), Kampong Cham province. There was a soldier camp there. That region was called zone 304 with a village chief named Koy Thuon (កយធ្នូន) alias Thuch (ធ្នូច). He died of diabetes. He was treated overseas (I knew he was sick because he told me in person that he was not sure whether he would be dead or alive). After that, Doeun (ខៀន), deputy chief of Koy Thuon, told me that Koy Thuon had died from illness. Koy Thuon disappeared in 1978. In that region, there were intellectuals from other countries and the civilians who came to work there. That was zone B-20 at kilometre 13 where corns and rice were produced to supply to the army in the jungle. I entered the revolution since 1971. I first served the revolution in Ratanakiri province. After about one year I was sent to Stoeung Trang, Kampong Cham province. The military operation was then conducted in Taing Kork(តាំងគោក), Kampong Thom province and Skun, Kampong Cham province. There were B-52 bombardments there too.

CC & MS: When did you enter Phnom Penh?

TS: I entered Phnom Penh before 17 April 1975 under the order of Koy Thuon. He ordered me to lead the troops to Phnom Penh by conducting the attacks along the roads in Batheay (បាធាយ) district and crossing Preak Khdam (ព្រែកក្តាម). When I arrived in Phnom Penh, I worked at office K-12 near Chamkar Mon. This unit was a driving unit. By then I was a driver and an army counsellor. Later, Thi (ធី) (deceased) came to replace me. Vi (វី) was chief of K-12 (he died from the disease in Phnom Penh). In K-12, there were small and big trucks that were used to transport the materials such as plates, knives, pots, clothes, rice to the people in the zones. After Vi had died, I became chief of K-12. Thi was my deputy. I drove foreign guests including the Chinese guests to Siem Reap and Battambang. I was chief of K-12 until 1976. I then moved to lead the troops at the border. Three months before entering Phnom Penh, I received an order to surround the city and find ways to enter it. On the fifth and sixth of April, I was ordered to launch the heavy attacks on Phnom Penh. When I got to Phnom Penh for two or three days, I received an order from my chief, Koy Thuon who ordered me through the communication radio to evacuate the people. When I arrested Lon Nol's soldiers in Phnom Penh, I just questioned them and later sent them to Doeun (deceased) at unit 304 in Kampong Thom. When [I] got to Phnom Penh, five Lon Nol soldiers were killed in a shooting because they refused to lay down the weapons but exchanged the shootings with my soldiers, which killed three of them. Concerning this issue, I communicated with Koy Thuon through the communication radio set and he told me to shoot to death those who would not give up. Uncle Pol Pot instructed me to lead the soldiers to prepare the accommodation at K-1 and K-3. I ordered my soldiers to clean the locations for our uncles. I saw the uncles having a meeting at office K-1 with the chiefs from other zones, such as Koy Thuon, Meas Mot (មាសមុតិ) and all chiefs of all sectors.

CC & MS: What was the structure of K-12 and how was it managed?

TS: Above K-12 there was Pang (ប៉ង) who ran the overall control. In my unit, when people made mistakes, they were just educated. No people were missing nor being charged with being a traitor. There was enough food to eat with three meals a day. Pang was chief of office 870 with Prum(ព្រំ) (deceased) and Ken (កែន) (deceased) alias Lin (លីន) as his personal assistant. Sem(សែម), Ken's wife, lives in Phnom Chhat (ភ្នំឆាត់), Malai. I used to chair a meeting at K-12, in which we discussed the maintenance of the cars/trucks and careful driving and productive use of time. Pang's driver told me that Pang died in an ambush conducted by the jungle thieves while he was receiving goods like machines... shipped in by Korean ship docking at Kampong Som sea port. He was shot to death between Sre Ambel and Veal Rinh. In 1976, Ken alias Lin substituted Pang. Lin died in 1981.

CC & MS: When you arrived in Phnom Penh, what did you see?

TS: I saw crowded people mixed with soldiers and civilians. I saw civilians being evacuated.

CC & MS: Did you ever participate in the meeting with the uncles?

TS: Yes, I did. I attended one meeting when it was held in 1976 at the Olympic stadium where there were around 200 participants, all of them were zone and sector chiefs. Nuon Chea presided over the meeting. The meeting discussed [strategies] to build up the correct forces and remind the participants of how to do their work better. The second meeting was in Borei Keila maybe in late 1976 with the participation of Nuon Chea as a chairperson and around 200 participants, all of them were zone and sector chiefs and workers. The meeting discussed [strategies] to increase the production and to do the best farming. The third meeting was in 1977. It was a military training course conducted by Son Sen in Santuk district, Kampong Thom province, participated by around 300 participants from all military units. The training was about the military duty and the division of labour as in which zone one would station. I once participated in a 1978 meeting led by Pol Pot at the Olympic stadium. There were around 300 people from all zones, civilians and sector chiefs. The meeting was about the increase of the production and the economization.

CC & MS: Would you please elaborate on Pang's work as chief of office 870?

TS: Pang controlled all offices of the As such as K-1, K-2, K-3, K-4, K-7 and K-12. Pang was with uncle Pol Pot. Before he had made any decision, first he had to meet with Pol Pot. Pang then disseminate the order to other offices. Pang received the joint order from all uncles such as Pol Pot, Ieng Sary, Khieu Samphan, Nuon Chea in accordance with their expertise (tasks and directions). Pang managed along in all offices of the As. Pang used to meet with Khieu Samphan at K-3 and Khieu Samphan used to meet Pang at K-7. I saw that. Pang was chief of office 870 until he died in 1976. Ken alias Lin substituted him. He then died in 1981 during which [Khmer Rouge] escaped the Vietnamese attack. Pang lived in K-7 with his family. He went to K-3 and K-1 everyday to meet the uncles. I took the guests to meet with the uncles at K-1 and K-3 and I saw them having a meeting there everyday.

CC & MS: Did you ever drive the uncles to the provinces? How did you see the rural people's living status?

TS: I often drove the uncles to the provinces and I also drove the foreign guests to the provinces. I saw people having a decent living standard, a decent food. But I heard from the olds that there was a lack of food, clothes, household goods, medicines and that some people died from hunger. I saw people dye from the diseases such as malaria in Oral, Kampong Speu province for lacking the medicine in early 1979. I did not know clearly about the work of the civilians. The troops and the cadres had more sufficient foods and medicines than the civilians. I took Nuon Chea to the provinces of Prey Veng, Svay Rieng, Siem Reap, Kampot, Battambang, Kampong Som, Takeo, Kratie, and Stoeung Treng to meet with the cadres and the soldier chiefs in order to disseminate and educate them the [party] policy. In those meetings, he talked about the increase of the production and dam buildings. He also went down to see the dam sites very often about five to six times per month. Nuon Chea saw the hardship of and the destitute of the people. I took Khieu Samphan who accompanied Prince Norodom Sihanouk to visit the provinces of Siem Reap, Battambang, Kampot and Kampong Som. I also drove uncle Pol Pot to see people building dams and digging canals. Sometimes, Nuon Chea went with Pol Pot. I also drove Ieng Sary and foreign guests to see the dams at Angkor Wat and the electricity buildings very often. I went to all provinces.

CC & MS: Would you please elaborate the role of each K office you know?

TS: K-12 was a driving unit which was located between Pet Lok Sang hospital and Phsar Thmei. K-7 was a messenger unit which was located near the Royal Palace and the red building. K-6 was at Borei Keila. K-4 was a tailor-making unit near Boeung Keng Kang. K-1 was at the river side near the Royal Palace. It was Pol Pot's and Nuon Chea's place. Tan (តាន), chief of office K-1, lives in (Samlot). K-3 was near the former American embassy. This place belonged to Khieu Samphan, where he prepared the documents, filed the documents, and kept the meeting minutes. He produced documents for the people to read and kept them there. Sami (សាមី) was chief of K-3. He died in late 1975. Thân (ថ័ន) (deceased) replaced him in 1976. Ieng Sary lived in a house located near the railway station. That was the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. He lived there. Cheam (ជាម) was his personal bodyguard. Hoeun (ហៀន), Loeun (លៀន) and Roeun (រៀន) together with approximately 30 personal guards took care of his security when he was out of his residence. Som (សែម) (he died at Meh Toeuk (មេទឹក), Chey Chumneh (ជ័យជំនះ)) was a close man to Khieu Samphan. (A soldier) named Khân (ខន) living at Phnom Procuk and a man named Vann (វ៉ាន់) in Anlong Veng were his bodyguards. Other bodyguards includes Toan (តោន) living in O Chheu Krom (អូរឈើក្រុម), Pailin; Ron (រ៉ន) (already deceased) who looked for food for K-3 unit; Dan (ដាន) who died in 1979. Toeung (ទៀង) was a messenger and also a guard for Nuon Chea in Pailin. A driver of Nuon Chea, Yang Hoeun (យ៉ាងហៀន), died. Khem (ខែម), uncle Ieng Sary's driver for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, lives in Pailin. Neath (នាថ) was a medic and clerk of Ieng Sary (she is a daughter of Ieng Sary). Y Chhean (អ៊ឺណាន) was a messenger of Ieng Sary. Rin (រិន) was a medic of Khieu Samphan currently living in Pailin (she is his wife). Nhem Laing (ញឹមឡាំង) was Pol Pot's driver. He currently lives in Pailin. When he became a military chief, Than (ថាន) replaced him as a driver in 1983. At present, he lives in O Totem (អូទទឹម). Sang (សង់), a guard of K-1 unit is living in Phnom Chhat in the east of Malai. Phang (ផង់) was a guard and telegrapher at K-1. I do not know whether he is alive or dead (Ask Sang). Chiv (ជីវ) was Nuon Chea's guard. He lives near Tan's home in Samlot. Roeun (រឿន) was a messenger and a driver of Khieu Samphan. He died. Ron (រ៉ន) (son-in-law of Ieng Sary) was a medic and a guard of Nuon Chea.

CC & MS: Did you ever hear about office S-71?

TS: I heard about office S-71 when I struggled in the forest in 1973 in Boeung village, Trapaing Tim village, Phdau (ផ្កៅ) village, Tbeh (តែ្ប) village, Pren (ប្រេន) village, Khos (ខុស) village, Kbal Damrei village, Kampong Thom. The office S-71 was a place where the uncles including Uncle Nuon Chea, Pol Pot, Khieu Samphan, Ieng Sary and Son Sen worked. Ta Mok came to the meeting occasionally because he was positioned in Oral, Kampong Speu; Takeo and Kampot. In 1973 during which we were prepared to attack Phnom Penh, the office S-71 was moved to kilometer 13 in Stoeung Trang.

CC & MS: Did you know who the telegram messengers of the uncles were?

TS: I knew some like Mon (ម៉ន) who translated the telegram for Pol Pot and all uncles at office K-1. He currently lives in O Totim, Ta Sanh commune, Samlot district, Battambang province. When he finished his translation, he delivered [the translated materials] to uncle Pol Pot. Uncle Pol Pot then managed to send them to the zones, sectors and other uncles. I used to deliver the letters to the provinces. However, I did not know what was written because the envelops were sealed. Some letters were from uncle Pol Pot, uncle Nuon Chea, uncle Khieu Samphan and uncle Ieng Sary. But mostly the letters were coming from uncle Nuon Chea and Pol Pot who had them sent to the designated zone chiefs. The translated telegram was from China, Korea and some zones and sectors. In addition, Thim (ធ័ម) and En (ែន) lives in O Totim village, Ta Sanh commune, Samlot district.

They were typists and telegram translators. Mon was chief. I used to deliver the letters from Pol Pot, Nuon Chea, Ieng Sary, Khieu Samphan to chief of Preah Vihea sector Man (ម៉ាន); chief of Siem Reap sector Sot (សុត); chief of Prey Veng zone Sor Phim(ស៊ែម); chief of Stoeung Treng sector Vi (វី); chief of Kratie sector Tom (តុំ); chief of Pursat sector Keu (កើ) (deceased); chief of Battambang sector Yim (យីម) (deceased); chief of Kampot sector Ta Mok (deceased); chief of Kampong Speu sector Si (ស៊ី) (deceased). I knew that the letters from the uncles were sent to the regions, districts and villages; but I did not deliver them.

CC & MS: Did you know the people's living condition in the 3-year ruling regime?
TS: At that time, I did not know. I just heard from people that they lacked food and that they received only a few tins of rice per day. I did not see that with my own eyes. I heard that some people were brought to be tampered and then disappeared. I heard that people overworked; but in Phnom Penh it was normal. At that time, I did not know that people died because I was only in Phnom Penh. Only after had I escaped the Vietnamese attack, did I know about it. I sometimes went to the provinces, but I saw normal life. In the 3-year ruling regime, I occasionally saw Duch in the road; but did not know his position. I saw him when we drove our motorbikes. When I went to fight Yuon at Phnom Den (ភ្នំជិន), Takeo in late 1976, Mearl (មារល) from K-7 replaced me at K-12. I served K-12 for a year from 17 April 1975 to late 1976.
