Organizatio of Traitorous Networks in Division 801

Note:

1. Almost old forces were formed in Division 11.
2. New forces including Brâ, Chhaom, Lèm were formed in 1975 and 1976 in Rattanakiri

Plans and Activities in 801

A. Plans.

1. Inciting the youth about their hardship, the destruction of crops and encouraging them to leave Unit 801.
2. Inciting the people to oppose the Cooperative, to stop farming, to move (back) to their original villages and (then) to flee to Vietnam.
3. Building one traitor force each every month.

B. Traitorous activities.

1. Youth Leaving Unit 801.

- Some escaped to Vietnam.
- Some escaped to Laos.
- Others returned to the rear lines in Cambodia, meaning that they returned to their parents' Cooperatives.

2. Crop Destruction.

Note:

1. First rank. Regiment 83 was most active in destroying crops and escaping.
2. Second rank. Regiment 82, only deserted.
3. Third rank. Regiment 81, some also deserted, but third most active..
4. Fourth rank. Battalions 802 and 803, some also deserted, but fourth most active.

3. Incited the people to demonstrate for a return to private farming in their original villages. Dei Kraham villagers organized a demonstration following the above. This was Lèm's handiwork.

Chhuon and Horn incited the people in Tēn Village to flee to Vietnam, and, as a result, so far 10 families have already escaped.

Nāk and Sāmbok incited the people in Srae Nor Nong Village to escape to Laos. Thirty families have fled to Laos, including 5 Zone soldiers. First, Nāk indoctrinated the 5 soldiers. Then the 5 soldiers persuaded the other people to flee to Laos. All of the people were Laotian.

Note: This activity have recently been playing an important role in the Northeast Zone.

4. Activities building traitorous forces are still sparse, not yet an important problem.

Checked and certified that this report is truly correct according to my responses.

The Responses of KÈV Saroeun

Member of Division 801

—————
About Chhaom, Secretary of Battalion 833

Regiment 83, Division 801

[Annotation in the left margin:

Respected Brother,

When asked about the situation in the unit of A KÈV Saroeun, he reported that there were up to 58 people emdedded in his traitorous network in Division 801, some of whom were Chhaom, Lèm, Nat, Thàn, KÈV Narong, alias Bav, who have already been removed to the base.

I had Chăn (ឡង់) to interrogate to clarify only with respect to Chhaom 833.

With respect!

1. Chhaom was North Zone Military. When Comrade Leu (ឡូ) and Comrade Thĩn (ធីន) paid their visit to the Special Zone, these two comrades also brought Chhaom along.
2. After new battalions had been established, Chhaom rose to become a Battalion Deputy. Later Angkar sent Chhaom to the Battalion of Comrade Maut (ម៉ូត).
3. After having stayed there for four or five months, Comrade Maut returned Chhaom to Leu and Thĩn because Chhaom had been free in his relations with the people and with women.
4. In August 1975, Chhaom became Secretary of Battalion 833 in Rattanakiri. There, he still did things without restraint. He was instructed to change, but he did not change.

5. Having seen that he did things unreservedly in that way, Brâ (Kauvet national) persuaded him to betray our Revolutionary Party. Since then, Chhaom became a traitor from that point on..
6. At the beginning of 1976, Chhaom propagandized and instructed the youths Ruos and Chhom about the insufficient diet, inadequate clothing and diseases such as malaria that had caused people to die leaving their parents alone. He also persuaded youths to degrade and even destroy crops by uprooting and floating them away in the river. In addition, he even persuaded the youth to run away from their military units.
7. Two youths came to report to Brâ's messenger that Chhaom had conducted traitorous acts against Angkar's lines. After the messenger reported to Brâ, Brâ told Chhaom to slow down his activities for a while.
8. At the beginning of 1976, before this secret was revealed, Chhaom had inducted two traitors:
 1. Yi (យី), Economic Chairman of Regiment 83.
 2. La (ឡា), Youth member of Economics, Regiment 83.
9. Note: This person, Chhaom, has been very unrestrained in both his Revolutionary work and his traitorous activities.
 1. He was against the cultivation lines of Angkar. He did nothing.
 2. In traitorous activities, he did whatever, whenever and wherever he wanted.
 3. Some youths in Battalion 833 also escaped from their bases, especially from Regiment 83, where most of the youths ran away. Saroeun mentioned that Chhaom was not very active.
