TRIAL CHAMBER

TO: H.E. RONG Chhorng, Chief,
Victims Support Section

Date: 6 April 2011

FROM: Nil Nonn, President, Trial Chamber Chamber

CC: All parties, Case 002;
All Judges, Trial Chamber and Trial Chamber Senior Legal Officer,

Lawyers

SUBJECT: Trial Chamber memorandum in response to Civil Party Lawyers'
Request for changes in legal representation for Civil Parties

The Trial Chamber refers to the request of 3 March 2011 proposing certain changes in the legal representation for Civil Parties in Case 002 (E61).

The Chamber interprets Rule 23^{ter} of the Internal Rules, upon which the request is based, to permit but not require the Trial Chamber to approve arrangements for the representation or change in representation of Civil Parties. The Chamber would not usually seek to exercise oversight of these assignments and accordingly invites the Victims Support Section, in consultation with the Civil Party Lead Co-Lawyers, to organize present and future Civil Party representation as it sees fit, without unnecessary recourse to the Trial Chamber.

The Trial Chamber has nevertheless reviewed the present request and advises that it has no objection to any of the proposed reassignments.
