2 So, my question is simply: When you did that work as a bodyguard,
3 was that in your commune, in your village of birth, or was it in 4 a different location?

5 A. I provided the protection to the cadres partly in my village
6 and partly in other villages or provinces -- namely, Kampong Speu
7 and Kampong Chhnang, which are the two adjacent provinces.

8 Q. Now, you mentioned Vorn Vet and Khieu Samphan. During this 9 period, were you staying -- staying with them while you were 10 providing them protection?

11 A. During the time that I provided them protection, I
12 occasionally saw them; I did not stay with them every day.
13 Sometimes I actually guarded the road, as well, for their 14 journeys. I did not stay with them every day.

15 Q. Thank you. And just to clarify that one minor point, were they 16 staying in Kampong Speu and Kampong Chhnang? Is that where Vorn
17 Vet and Khieu Samphan were when you were providing them
18 protection?

19 [15.34.14]

20 A. Sometimes they stayed in Kampong Speu, but they did not stay
21 in the village; they stayed in the forest. It was known as the 22 "Big Forest" -- or "Prey Thom", in Khmer -- in Kampong Speu.

23 From Kampong Chhnang, they wanted to take them to Oral. Then they moved to Oral. It was in a jungle not in a residential village.

25 Q. And were you responsible for protecting anyone else, apart
