

Report

I would like to report to the respected, beloved Party of District 105.

On 17 July 1977, NEANG Dam (នាងដំ) came to visit my location where I was treated. He talked about this and that and asked about my illness. Later on, he talked about the party organization and himself who had a problem. But at that time, he kept talking so long that he began to talk about the just and unjust party. He said the party was so proud that it described itself as the party that implemented all lines very fairly. Later on, he asked about my observation. I responded that our party had been really fair, brother. He went on by saying: "As you brother did not experience the work extensively you really saw justice, but when I was a policeman, I saw the party much more unjust because it personally implemented many killings under their power." He gave an example of A Yang (អាយ៉ង់) in Trapeang (ត្រពាំង) Village who had been loyal to the Angkar but taken to be killed. When he spoke up to this point, I interfered by saying that on this issue we did not have a clearer action than the Angkar, but let us stop talking because it would not be good when the general people heard it because at that time the people also came to see me too; he then stopped talking.

On that same day, NEANG Dam went to tend the cows. He said again whether we all knew that at present our village people now had nothing left; no body had prestige any more; be careful; the Angkar allowed the people to come to live without any reason; they did not want us have any role; they tried to gain their face, but it could be that we all could be dead because of them; at that time, there was Dam, Sèm (សែម), Mao (ម៉ៅ), Chun (ជួន), who were sitting together while releasing the cows to eat. A little bit later, Chun, Mao took the cows away because they had heard Dam speaking inappropriately. Dam then continued to speak with Sèm at that tending site.

Confirmation: in 1973 NEANG Dam was a policeman of District 105; in 1975 the Angkar had him to return to the base because of the social crisis.

May the party be informed of the above report.
