Re: Confirmation of discussions concerning Co-Investigating Judge Harmon's letter of 31 January 2014

Dear Mr. Endeley,

Through this letter we confirm our earlier conversation concerning the letter you received from Co-Investigating Judge Harmon on Friday 31 January 2014 at approximately 4:43pm. You were unable to provide us with a copy of this letter without a Court Order since we were not on the distribution list. We certainly appreciate you bringing this matter to our attention.

We understand that Co-Investigating Judge Harmon is now instructing you to carry out his order to assign provisional counsel unless you are told otherwise by the Pre-Trial Chamber. We further understand that you intend to immediately commence identifying and contacting national and international lawyers to take over Mr. MEAS Muth's defence.

During our discussions, we informed you that we would be submitting an urgent request for the Pre-Trial Chamber to act on the pending submissions requesting a stay of execution of Co-Investigating Judge Harmon's Order. For transparency, we copy the Pre-Trial Chamber and the Co-Investigating Judges.

Sincerely yours,

ANG Udom
