PRESS RELEASE

Victims Support Section organizes a Training of Trainers for Focal Persons, from 18 provinces, for Civil Parties in Case 002

Phnom Penh, 4 November 2010: The Victims Support Section (VSS) of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia (ECCC) is offering a Training of Trainers to 60 focal persons, from 18 different provinces of Cambodia, for Civil Parties in Case 002, on 5 November 2010 at Sunway Hotel, Phnom Penh at 08h00AM.

This training aims to provide these selected focal persons with opportunity to be equipped with effective ways to receive and transfer correct and updated information to their fellow Civil Parties in Case 002 regarding their participation. The training also gives these focal persons the opportunity to meet with officials from various offices of the Court and staff members of the civil societies; and to understand more about legal issues regarding the rights and obligations of Civil Parties in Case 002; ensuring that these focal persons are capable of organizing trainings among other Civil Parties in Case 002 within their respectively communities/provinces throughout the country. This same training will also be offered to focal persons from other provinces.

With cooperation from intermediary organizations for the sake of the victims, particularly Civil Parties in Case 002, the Victims Support Section, on several occasions, has participated in regional forums for Civil Parties in Case 002; recently the ones organized by ADHOC in Kampong Cham on 14-15 October 2010; and in Sihanouk Province on 27-28 October 2010.

Kindly be reminded that the Victims Support Section successfully held a Regional Civil Parties Forum for Case 002, on 30-31 August 2010, from Pursat, Battambang and Banteay Meanchey.
